

Jewish Mysticism for the 21st Century

A Weekend Shabbaton with

Rabbi Arthur Green

April 1-3, 2016

Rabbi David Zaslow says, "Reb Arthur teachings are both brilliant and inspiring. This is a not-to-be-missed weekend!"

What does it mean to be a religious human being in our era? How does a creative reclaiming of Jewish mystical wisdom equip us to live in a time when "all or nothing" religion reveals its potential to be a dangerous and destructive force in human affairs?

How can we reclaim a very particular life of piety and devotion in an openminded and universalist context?

Where: Havurah Synagogue,
Ashland, Oregon

Cost: $135 Early Bird
before February 1
$185 registration after
February 1
$200 after March 15
$ 60 for teens

Some work trade available.

Contact: 541-488-7716
or visit

www.havurahshirhadash.org
for more info or to register.

Rabbi Art Green has been thinking, teaching, and writing about these questions for more than half a century. A leading student of Abraham Joshua Heschel and Zalman Schachter-Shalomi, he is author of Radical Judaism, Seek My Face, and a dozen other books, both personal and scholarly. His current project is a book on Neo-Hasidism as a spiritual path. He will teach from this work-in-progress, as well as showing how he reclaims the classic Hasidic sources for contemporary seekers.