wish all the best to Rabbi David in honor of his 20th year at the Havurah

To our dear

Ha Rav Daveed Baruch Za'ev ben Shmuel v'Charna

Before we met you, we were just plain

Marcía and Jan

and in Spanish-speaking countries, we were

Los Chaiken

But when you called us to Torah we were

Masha bat Malka v Haím

and

Yehuda ben Joseph v Hava

Then you taught us how to delve into names, and you became

Beloved Blessing Wolf son of the one who Hears God within Darkness and we became

The Daughter who was Drawn Out of Water by the Queen of Life

and

Praised be the son of intensifying the Mother of All Living Things

Now that's far out! Anyone who meets you is never the same.

We look forward to future miraculous discoveries with you as our rabbi.

Live long and prosper!

Our family has been supported by David through tough and joyous years.

We love him beyond words.

Roasting and humor have their place,
but to talk tachles: Rabbi David Zaslow is simply The Best!

THANK YOU REB DOVID!!!!

For your wise and courageous, deep and high persona that keeps inviting us to love this country and love Israel...

years of inspiring us)

I've known David both as a rabbi and a member of a men's group.
In the men's group, he talked about Judaism, prayer and spirituality.
As a rabbi, he talked about sex, drugs and sports.
If he ever gets it right, let me know.

B'shalom, Hal Dresner

Mazal tov to
Reb David
& Havurah Shir Hadash

Mazal tov Rabbi David,

We love you and honor you as our rabbi, friend and wise teacher.
May the Holy One bless you to continue to serve our community in vibrant radiant health, on all levels of body, mind, heart and spirit, and may you always feel the love that surrounds you in each precious moment.

ללחיל מחיל תעלה

May you go from strength to strength!!

With so much love from Rabbi Sue and Howie Morningstar

CONGRATULATIONS!

MATT AND NEIL

Holy Brother:

Your wisdom, passion, vision and heart are opening gates to heaven with every breath you take. Blessings for full support in your brilliant rabbinate for as long as you yearn to serve. I feel blessed every day to be on this path with you.

B'ahava uvracha,

Rabbah D'vorah Kolodny

It is with abiding love and gratitude that we honor Rabbi David at this time. He continually provides us with joy and inspiration to ever deepen our faith and explore its rich traditions and wisdom. We especially appreciate his humor and humility while at the same time providing us with rich insights and teachings that affect our everyday lives in so many meaningful ways. David, you and Devorah have enabled us to truly touch our faith with intimacy, questioning, strength, challenge and lightness. Thank you for keeping the flame eternally bright in our hearts and in so many others. Thank you for your ecumenical spirit that has allowed each of us to open our hearts and break down age-old prejudices as we come to appreciate and respect our brothers and sisters of other faiths all rejoicing under one G-d.

We wish you continued support and inspiration for your gifted guidance and success in so many endeavors. It is a deep blessing and a gift to know you. Thank you for being our rabbi.

With love and gratitude, Marty Towbin and Suzan Towlen

Reb David,

Thank you for being a great rabbi, teacher, mentor
and role model who walks the walk.

Ayala and Yuval Zonnenschein

A blessing crosses my mind when I think of you standing at the gates, continuing the holy work of those who went before you.

How you revere those teachers, reach out to them,
to the past, where their work still resides,
brought to this day by disciples like you.

I bless you with
continued pumping up of your muscular soul,
an appreciation of your own sensitivity,
the balance of the new and the old,
the paradigm you will help shift in the service of HaShem.

B'shalom v'ahavah,

Bruce and Jerri Barton

Excerpt from A Poem on the Ordination of David Zaslow, August 1995

Rabbi David,

Your vision, inspiration and hard work have transformed not only the Havurah but also numerous communities of Jews and non-Jews. Our blessing is that you and Devorah enjoy the harvest of your vision and labor.

Allan and Colleen Weisbard

Rabbi David, you are absolutely adored by the Gan Neve Shalom Peace Garden children! You have earned a place in their hearts and will be remembered for years to come!

*In gratitude,
Leah Avital and the Gan children*

Thanks for being a great teacher and strengthening my faith.

John McQuillan

Your warmth and wisdom have meant so much to our family.

With gratitude and love,

The Chatroux Family Noel, Sylvia, Louisa and Isabelle

To our Brooklyn boychik -- Mazel Tov on 20 -- now 20 more.

Bernie z"l and Lorraine

Rabbi David has revitalized Judaism for me. His insights and knack for making ancient wisdom contemporary and relevant are remarkable. I am indebted to him for enriching my inner world and for bringing an extra measure of joy to my every day.

Avram Chetron

Mazal Tov Reb David & Devorah!

With appreciation and admiration from your Chico mishpachah,

Rabbi Julie & Avraham Danan

We love you Rabbi David!
